News of Michigan's Kidnaped Heiress.

She is Reported to Be Secreted Near Riverside.

Startling Letter from the Woman's Alleged Niece.

A Harrowing Story of Torture Inflicted on the Abducted Woman—Her Son Stole in Her Presence and Her Mind Grew Crazy.

By Telegram to The Times.

REVEREND, June 22.—The Press of this city, has discovered living in this city a woman named Anna J. Butterfield, who had apparently some knowledge of the abduction of Mrs. Brooks, of Jamaica, Mich., who recently came into a large fortune at Denver. The Press found that the Butterfield woman had sent East a batch of letters which had been written to Mrs. Brooks, and had received a copy of a Detroit paper speaking of the receipt of the letters at the East. The Butterfield woman disappeared last Sunday, and the Press argues that she had some connection with the abduction of Mrs. Brooks herself, the bequest having upset her mind.

THE MYSTERY DEEPENS.

REVEREND, June 22.—Inquiry today has failed to learn the whereabouts of Anna J. Butterfield, who is thought to know something of the supposed kidnapping of Mrs. Albert Brooks, of Michigan, who lately fell heir to $500,000 at Denver, Colo. There are certainly facts that seem to be established, viz: That Mrs. Butterfield came into possession of the private letters of Mrs. Brooks, and sent them to a banker in Michigan, and that she telegraphed money to her old home through a Riverside bank for the benefit of Miles Brooks, who she claimed was a son of an aunt who was East. It is possible that Mrs. Butterfield is a niece of the lost Mrs. Brooks, and that after the receipt of the money her mind became unbalanced and she wandered from her friends. Mrs. Butterfield talked strangely about matters. She claimed to have come into possession of $500,000 to $100,000.

A STARTLING LETTER.

DETROIT (Mich.), June 22.—The disappearance of Mrs. Brooks is again to the fore with a more romantic story than at first. Several weeks ago L. C. Merritt, of this place, wrote to Mrs. Butterfield at Riverside, Cal., asking for information concerning Mrs. Brooks. The following reply was received on Monday:

"Your letter of the 6th received and contents noted. You say you were at Brooks' and read my letter to them and you wanted to know if I employed a detective to hunt for my money. I have, and he has found her and rescued her from the prison cell where she had been for three months. Also you wanted to know if she had drawn all her money. She has not drawn any of what was coming to her, but had a present of a draft for $50,000. Then her lawyer gave her $2000 in cash. She had that when I saw her in St. Louis about the 10th of February. She is heir to about $500,000. The detective has had the luck to find that much. It can't be got without a private mark, which was agreed when they last met the lady that has the care of it. It was to make her sign that mark. They tortured her so, but she would not sign it, and I think she is very gritty. The detective writes me that they kept her six days without a mouthful of food, and that she was tortured that she was cruel. I shall see that she is taken to her family. Shall try to get her there by the fourth of July, if her mind is so that we can move her, for now she is crazy. They killed her boy before her eyes. That turned her mind."

ANXIOUS D. BUTTERFIELD.

The letter was evidently written by the hand that penned the letter signed by Mrs. Brooks, and detailing the story of her imprisonment.

WASHINGTON.

A Knotty Point for the Interstate Commission.

WASHINGTON, June 22.—[By the Associated Press.] In the hearing of the Interstate Commerce Commission, today, John W. Street, of Chicago, testified in the same line as that of the complainant. Henry B. Stone, general manager of the Burlington road, in detail denied that the cars were superior to the ordinary stock cars, and urged that the great objection was that neither lumber nor steel rails could be loaded in them, and they had to be hauled in leading points empty. When this case is closed the Commission will take a recess until July 13th.

MAYNARD'S FAVORABLE RULING.

Secretary Maynard has granted the application of the Mechanics' Institute, of San Francisco, for permission to exhibit, without payment of duties, foreign goods intended for the coming exposition to be held by the institute, subject to the conditions usually prescribed in such cases, one of which is that the exhibition building be bonded as a warehouse.

The President has recognized Julio Gonzalez as Consul-General of the United States of Venezuela at San Francisco.

WHO IS THE LUCKY MAN?

THIS MEANS YOU.

Here is a Little Speculation that will discount anything in the Market.

Eighty-five acres of choice land, suitable for the successful growing of strawberries of the finest kind, as well as any small fruit or vegetables, in the town of Compton, less than one-half mile from the railroad depot, has been subdivided into sixteen tracts, of which fifteen contain five acres each and one ten acres; 65 acres of it in alfalfa. One of the five-acre tracts has a $2500 house, $500 barn, and the finest artesian well in the land, and is easily worth $4500.

Any one of the five-acre tracts can be so planted as to support any man and his family, and do it well.

These sixteen tracts will be distributed among the sixteen lucky purchasers of the sixteen tickets, now for sale.

Every purchaser gets more than the worth of his money, and, besides, there are

A Specific for Croup.

Mr. J. J. LaGrange, a prominent druggist of Avoca, Neb., says: "I consider Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a specific for Croup. It is very pleasant to take, which is one of the most important requisites where a cough remedy is intended for use among children. I have known of cases of spasmodic croup where I know the life of a little one was saved by the use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." Sold by C. H. Hance, 77 and 79 North Spring street.

Mr. C. H. Shawen, Wellsville, Kan., says: "It is with pleasure that I can speak of the good Chamberlain's Cough, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has done in my family during the last thirteen years. In the most obstinate case of summer complaint and diarrhea among my children it acts as a charm, making it never necessary to call in a physician. I can truthfully say that it is my judgment, based on years of experience, that there is not a medicine in the market that is its equal as a family remedy, and that I will never keep a house without a bottle of it in my possession." Sold by C. H. Hance, 77 and 79 North Spring street.

ADVERTISERS.

THE BERNARDINO. June 21.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Prices are increasing. A 100-acre stock farm that was in the market three months ago for $5000 has been advanced to $14,000 to correspond with its real value. A part of a town lot that was sold for $50 recently has just been sold again for $300 to Mr. Nelson, of Garden Grove, who sold his property there to parties from Modena. The movement is just like a flock of blackbirds in a barley field—the rear ones constantly flying over the main body, to light just in advance; and so the whole body moves forward, conquering as it goes. Garden Grove is now buying the flock with the sale of 100 town lots next week. I hope the Garden Grovers will have great success. They have good land, pure artesian water, the best of climates and good location—only four miles from a railroad, and with a prospect of another road directly through the town. Their lands have already doubled in value this spring. Those who buy there will do well. Those who fly over to these regions beyond can do better still, just as good land for orchards and vineyards, with corn lands and alfalfa lands and pasture lands to make a larger variety, the same artesian water with a stronger flow, and the same prospect for a railroad through to Long Beach and Wilmington, with prices still unboomed, $35 to $100 per acre.

Everybody is busy with the hay crop. The stacks line the roads. From the scarcity elsewhere, all the way down to San Diego, it looks as if we had the key to the market. The apricot crop is very good, and is now ready for market. Here, again, our crop is the best in this whole section, and it will probably be sold for consumption in the surrounding towns, where the booms have so enlarged our market. As a pointer for your readers, the early Moorpark is the best apricot now known to us, combining earliness, large size, beauty and fine flavor. The bluish on the sunny side is that of a maiden, and not like the weather-beaten red tan of a sea captain. These were fully ripe here June 14th. The peach and apple crops are very promising, and the Anderson peach has now a fine color and will soon be in the market. The potato crop is large.

The Governor has reappointed Robert Stearns as notary public for his seventh consecutive term. As Westminster agent for A. Robinson, trustee of the Stearns ranch, he has sold nearly all this country once, and can now sell selected parts of it at better bargains than ever before because values are rapidly rising. It is expected that company lands will be opened again for sale this fall.

I clip the following table from the Anaheim New Era:

James A. McFadden kindly furnishes the following table of produce grown and shipped from Westminster township during the past year. On behalf of this locality it speaks for itself:

San Bernardino.
GENERAL NOTES.
SAN BERNARDINO, June 21.—[Correspondence of THE TIMES.] Frank J. Myers, who forged a check on Clum & O'Connor, of this city, and had Mr. Lyons, the San Diego real-estate man, endorse it, and was caught at Yuma Sunday night, as announced by a telegram which appeared in Tuesday's issue of THE TIMES, was at one time in the employ of Messrs. Plato, Hyde & Leshar, the opera-house lessees of this city. At the time of the forgery he was not identified, but has since been beyond a doubt. He was taken back by the United States Marshal, Smith, who caught him. His reputation here is none of the best.

The new Katz block, in which are situated the Collier Bros., which their 23 Dorado dry goods store, and the San Bernardino Grocery Company on the first floor, will soon be finished in the second and third stories, and occupied as offices. The new coat of red paint on the front and the fancy balcony, make it one of the finest of all the business buildings in the city.

The double-jointed girl is being exhibited in town, but attracts little attention.

Strangers are becoming more plenty every day, and a large number are noticed from the Southern States, Mississippi and Tennessee being very largely represented.

Mrs. Clara Foltz, of the San Diego Bee, was in town Sunday and Monday. An unknown man tried to commit suicide at the depot by lying down underneath the cars, but was prevented by brakemen. He was evidently crazy, and finally wandered off grumbling at people interfering with his business.

The electric lights have again gone back on their good record, and last night failed to show up at all.

The ground is now cleared and ready for the foundation of the big block of business houses to be erected opposite the St. Charles Hotel on Third street, near E. When completed it will be the largest block in the city.

Louis Anker, the dry goods merchant, has commenced building a new residence at C and Fourth streets which will be an ornament to the residence portion of the city.

Christian Meyer, the man who was held up in Redlands and robbed of $150, was in Los Angeles man. Three of his assailants had only been identified, and the other two were released. The three held being put under $1000 bond.
